Summary Tableaux: Staying Safe While Helping Others

Summary is: Taking the main ideas and important details of text and condensing them into an organized overview.

A tableau is: A group of silent, motionless figures used to represent a scene, theme, idea or moment. Tableaux (plural) can be presented as stand-alone images to communicate one specific message. Important features of a tableau include character, space, gesture, facial expressions, and levels.

Task:

In your groups, you will perform a two-scene tableau for the class summarizing two important ideas, details, or pieces of information from the story "Staying Safe While Helping Others". Remember to consider the main theme/ idea of the story (personal safety), and consider that in choosing and presenting your scenes. You must hand in your group's graphic organizer, your group's tableau plan, your individual rubric and participate in the presentation of your tableau. You will be marked individually and as a group.

Success Criteria:
